

WE BELIEVE

- that the culture of the Eclasia group rests upon strong and fundamental values
- that integrity is the very basis of these values and represents a firm guarantee to shareholders, staff, customers, suppliers and collectivities
- that dignity knows no hierarchy and is the personal treasure of each individual
- that respect for others and mutual recognition are essential elements in our relationships
- that the ability to listen is a source of enrichment as it teaches us the value of difference
- that professionalism, creativity and innovation guarantee our growth and the lasting value of our actions
- that equity is a guarantee of social justice and freedom
- that loyalty and serenity of mind ensure continuity in our relationships
- that all of this leads to quality in our services, products and relationships, reinforces our convictions and stimulates us towards the accomplishment of our tasks and duties